

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN

C I T A T I O N B Y T H E S E N A T E

KNOW YOU BY THESE PRESENTS:

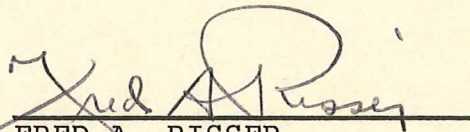

WHEREAS, Louis Radke devoted years of service to the conservation movement in Horicon, Wisconsin, and influenced conservation movements throughout Wisconsin and the United States; and

WHEREAS, Louis Radke, beginning in 1921, was a leading advocate and a tireless worker for the restoration of the Horicon Marsh; and

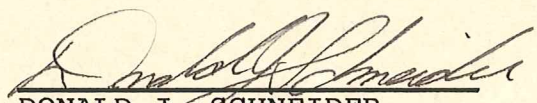

WHEREAS, Louis Radke's work in this successful fight gave us the Horicon Marsh, which is the largest freshwater cattail marsh in the United States and includes over 265 bird species; and

WHEREAS, Louis Radke's dedication to the conservation movement included terms as president of the Wisconsin Conservation League, national director and national president of the Izaak Walton League; now

THEREFORE, the members of the Wisconsin Senate, on the motion of Senator Helbach, do commend LOUIS RADKE on his induction into the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame.
