Phil Sander
Local conservationist, naturalist

Vital statistics: Age 91; single

River, Chiwaukee Prairie."

In the news because ... Sander was recently honored by the Des Plaines River Chapter of the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation for his lifetime contributions to conservation in Wisconsin. He was named an Honorary Life Member of the chapter at a dinner and fund-raiser in May.

Person whom I most admire: "Aldo Leopold (an ecology teacher) and Owen Gromme (a taxidermist and painter)." (both deceased).

Best advice I ever received... "Save all places."

I'm most proud of... "I designed a monument" for a park along the Mississippi River.

I chose my career because ... "I was just interested in the outdoors and wanted to make it possible for fellows for hunt or fish."

Favorite childhood memory: "Days in school, athletic events, social events."

People would be surprised to know ... "I have all kinds of hats: I do cartooning and woodcarving and some watercolors."

Favorite book: "The Sand County Almanac."

Last good movie I saw was... "Titanic"

When I'm not at work or at home, people can find me... "At the Des Plaines

Favorite TV show: "National Geographic specials."

Favorite food: "Salad."
