

State of Wisconsin

CITATION BY THE LEGISLATURE

KNOW YOU BY THESE PRESENTS:

WHEREAS, Henry Liebzeit was a true conservationist who took an active role in caring for Wisconsin's natural resources; and

WHEREAS, Hank's knowledge was valued by many people and his input was invaluable to numerous Wisconsin legislators, members of the Department of Natural Resources and the general public; and

WHEREAS, Hank knew how to get his message across – he recognized the necessity of state government and local organizations working with the general public. He took it upon himself to visit with neighboring citizens when working on a specific project and by so doing gained the trust and respect of those he worked with; and

WHEREAS, Hank was actively involved in the Twin City Rod & Gun Club, Wisconsin Conservation Congress, the Lake Winnebago Comprehensive Management Plan and the reestablishment of the bear hunting season; and

WHEREAS, Hank served as a member of several state committees including the Sheepshead Advisory Committee, Sea Lamprey Task Force, Sturgeon Advisory Committee and was Co-Chair of the Winnebago Plan's User Committee; and

WHEREAS, Hank was an avid sportsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, archery, and boating; now

THEREFORE, the members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Senator Shibilski and Representative Murat, commend HENRY L. LIEBZEIT for his unwavering commitment and tremendous contributions to Wisconsin's natural resources and for his induction into the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame.
