

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN

CITATION BY THE ASSEMBLY

KNOW YOU BY THESE PRESENTS:

WHEREAS, Walter E. Scott was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mr. Scott developed his love and appreciation of nature in the Boy Scouts of America, where he achieved the remarkable rank of Double Eagle Scouts. He was also the first Wisconsin recipient of the prestigious Harmon Foundation Eagle Scout Scholarship in 1927; and

WHEREAS, Walter Scott organized the first game management wildlife research project and was instrumental in the creation of Horicon Marsh and public hunting grounds at Deansville Marsh; and

WHEREAS, Walter Scott was known as the "conscience" of the Department of Conservation and the Department of Natural Resources where he served as a dedicated conservation warden, game management supervisor, editor and assistant to the director; and

WHEREAS, Walter Scott held a leadership role in seventeen conservation organizations and was a member in dozens of local, state and national groups. Mr. Scott was a prolific author and knowledgeable, respected conservation orator; now, therefore,

Representative Bill Murat on behalf of the Wisconsin State Assembly, under Assembly Rule 97, hereby commends Walter E. Scott for his commitment to the advancement and management of Wisconsin's natural resources and for his induction into the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame.
